

FORT ROSECRANS GOES TO WAR!

WORLD WAR II MILITARY HISTORY
REENACTMENT AND
PEARL HARBOR COMMEMORATION
DECEMBER 5-7, 2015
9:00AM - 4:00PM

All Weekend

9:30AM - 3:00PM - Tour the military encampment and battery command station bunker

9:30AM - 3:00PM - Learn about WWII era communications with the Amateur Radio (HAM) operators, W6W event station

Saturday December 5, 2015

9:00AM - Park opens

9:30AM - Presentation of colors (traffic circle)

9:00AM - 2:00PM - Lady liberty vintage car show (park-wide)

11:30AM - 1:30PM - Mess hall style lunch

2:00PM - "Home-front Memories: When WWII Came to San Diego". An oral history presentation by Dedi Ridenouer (auditorium)

3:00PM - Searchlight Bunker Tour (bayside trail)

Sunday December 6, 2015

9:00AM - Park opens

9:30AM - Presentation of colors (traffic circle)

11:30AM - 1:30PM - Mess hall style lunch

11:00AM - Flyover, air raid reenactment (military encampment bluff)

1:00PM - Flyover, air raid reenactment (military encampment bluff)

2:30PM - "A Brief History of Fort Rosecrans". A presentation by Joe Janesic (auditorium)

Monday December 7, 2015

9:45AM - 11:15PM - 74th commemoration of the attack on Pearl Harbor streaming live from the park auditorium (You can watch this event from home as well, by logging on to <http://www.pearlharborevents.com/live-stream>)

1:00PM - "A Brief History of Fort Rosecrans". A presentation by Joe Janesic (auditorium)

2:00PM - "An Overview of Pearl Harbor". A presentation by CNM Chief of Interpretation Eileen Martinez (auditorium)