

CABRILLO NATIONAL MONUMENT

NATURALLY SPEAKING

SCIENCE EDUCATION SERIES

Join us as we explore the natural themes of Cabrillo National Monument!
All talks will be held Thursdays in the Cabrillo Auditorium.

*Space is limited so reserve your seat today at:
<https://goo.gl/forms/2ZNGVg4LRw3jGeUJ3>

The Amazing World of Bats – Nature’s Tiny Fighter Jets

Speaker: Don Endicott
November 30, 2017, 6 – 8 PM

Life on the Rocks – The Geology of Point Loma

Speaker: Dr. Stephen Schellenberg
December 14, 2017, 6 – 8 PM

Nature in Balance – Managing the National Parks

Speaker: Superintendent Andrea Compton
January 18, 2018, 6 – 8 PM

Peregrine Falcons – Masters of the Air!

Speaker: Don Endicott
March 22, 2018, 6 – 8 PM

Am I Bugging You? – Insects of the Peninsula

Speaker: Patricia Simpson
June 21, 2018, 6 – 8 PM

Of Islands and Reptiles – Life of the S. Pacific Rattlesnake

Speaker: Roman Nava
July 19, 2018, 6 – 8 PM

Tolerating the Flames – Wildfire Ecology

Speaker: Dr. Keith Lombardo
September 20, 2018, 6 – 8 PM

 This series is open exclusively to Cabrillo National Monument Foundation Members. Join the Cabrillo National Monument Foundation today at the Visitor Center or online at www.CNMF.org